SUMMARY

Graphic design has been a passion of mine since 2018. I had my first hands-on experience in 2020, creating an official school poster. From that point on, I've been refining my skills daily, especially during the COVID-19 outbreak when we were all stuck at home. My expertise has grown significantly, and recently, I landed a project designing a movie poster for War On Terror: KL Anarki, which is featured on Amazon Prime Video. Doesn't end there , my limitless skills justified by pursuing deeper in Information Technology.
